Some of the ideas and concepts you will see in the Property Management section of this course were originally promoted by Gita in her books and in courses she teaches across the country. We are grateful for her passion around teaching these techniques and tips to fellow accounting and property management professionals so they can be more efficient and successful in their businesses.

Gita has published a series of books on the topic Manage Properties with QuickBooks, which can be found on her website. We encourage interested readers to purchase her books in order to obtain a more detailed understanding of how to use QuickBooks to serve this particular industry."

Thanks to your contribution to the Advance QuickBooks ProAdvisor certification course—By Intuit, Inc.
